

HUD TENANTS ORGANIZING FOR CHANGE

Wednesday, May 15, 2019, 1:30 - 3:30 pm

2870 Adeline Street, Berkeley, CA
Harriet Tubman Terrace Community Room

---

Take your seat at the table! People living in federally assisted affordable (HUD) housing have the right to form Resident Councils and speak up without interference by management. A new bill may soon grant that right to all renters in California.

Learning to organize and work together, we can protect and improve our housing and quality of life.

Featured Speakers:

Resident leaders from 4 senior HUD buildings, plus members/staff of the National Alliance of HUD Tenants, California Tenants Together, and East Bay Housing Organizations (EBHO). Q&A and discussion are followed by social time after the program.
