Jointly Pursuing the Rights of Immigrants to Equality, Jobs and Affordable Housing

At the beginning of a new decade early in the 21st Century we declare the need to be in solidarity with those populations in our midst who are unable to enjoy the political, economic and legal rights that most Americans take for granted.

This is a time of economic hardship and uncertainty for many, and we recognize that our immigrant brothers and sisters are among the most vulnerable.

They are living in a climate of fear and intimidation, as hostile political rhetoric escalates and discriminatory policies and attacks are on the rise.

In this landscape, The Black Alliance for Just Immigration, the Interfaith Committee for Worker Justice, and Interfaith Communities United (ICU) of East Bay Housing Organizations have joined in collaborative efforts to defend the rights and seek justice for immigrants and all who provide value in this land.

We have united - - -

to protect worker rights and standards,

*to address the need of low-income people
for affordable housing,*

to pursue just immigration reform that seeks full inclusion for immigrants in our society.

Remembering Eve Bach

(7/18/41 - 3/1/10)

A long-time EBHO member and Board member for six years, Eve Bach was a remarkable advocate for the equitable and sustainable development of affordable housing. She brought 30+ years of experience as a City and regional planner, economist, and community activist to a host of EBHO campaigns. As the Economics & Planning Director for Arc Ecology, she worked thousands of hours reviewing and analyzing complex planning documents, drafting comments, providing community education, and developing creative and insightful affordable housing strategies with groups throughout the Bay Area. A few examples with EBHO include Housing Element campaigns to create suitable sites, adequate zoning, and strong affordable housing programs, and the Concord Naval Weapons Station campaign to ensure permanent affordable housing, access to open space and parks, and family-supporting jobs. With Renewed Hope in Alameda, she fought for affordable housing at the Alameda Naval Air Station. Beyond her incomparable skills, we will long remember Eve's integrity, forthrightness, infectious giggle, and unwavering commitment to achieving EBHO's goals.

As our dear friend and colleague, we deeply miss her.

She is survived by her husband of 40 years, Gale, her daughter, Nadira, her grandson, Nigel, and other family members.

EBHO appreciates its sponsors of Affordable Housing Week 2010
