

Breaking Bread, Branching Out

This activity is designed to highlight the diversity of backgrounds, ideas, and resources across the EBHO community. As the focus of each prompt broadens moving down the list, we invite you to explore your own roots and support systems, your place in the broader community, and the common ground we all share as advocates for housing justice.

Roots - Where do you come from?

Trunk - What are your support systems?

Branches - What connections would you like build?

Leaves - What resources, skills, and strengths do you bring to the table?

Fruits - What outcomes do you want for the future?
